15 v.

16 Marcus Anthony Wells,

17 Defendant.

Case No. 2:17-cr-00187-RFB

Joint Motion for Briefing Schedule

18 The parties respectfully request that the Court enter the attached proposed 19 order setting a briefing schedule for the following reasons.

20 Mr. Wells (acting pro se) sent a letter to the Court that was filed on June 14,
21 2024. (ECF No. 117.) In that letter, Mr. Wells appeared to request early termination
22 of supervised release. (See id.)

23 The government filed an opposition to that request on June 28, 2024. (ECF No.
24 118.)

25 Mr. Wells then (again acting pro se) submitted another letter to the Court that 26 was filed on March 26, 2025. (ECF No. 119.) In that letter, Mr. Wells appeared to 27 request a modification to his conditions of supervision. (See id.)

Assistant Federal Public Defender Rick Mula filed a notice of appearance on March 28, 2025. (ECF No. 120.)

Mr. Wells still intends to seek modification of his conditions of supervised release to enable him to work as a commercial trucker. However, he needs additional time to gather the information necessary to support such a request. The parties agree that requiring the government to respond to the request at this time is premature and would lead to inefficiencies.

Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the Court enter the attached proposed order setting a briefing schedule.

Proposed Order

Good cause appearing, the parties' Joint Motion for Briefing Schedule is granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Mr. Wells file any supplement to his pending motions by June 2, 2025.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the government file a response, if any, to the supplement, within two weeks of the supplement being filed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mr. Wells may file a reply in support of the supplement, if any, within one week of the government's response being filed.

Dated this 7th day of April, 2025.
